

K-Love serves me and my family as a resident of this community by providing quality radio programming. Without this programming I would not have this uplifting daily messages of K-Love, messages I use to nurture, encourage, and grow my family. This serves the public interest because it creates strong family units that contribute to society in a positive way.